Office Furniture NOW!

©2020 Office Furniture NOW!

Our installation services start way before we arrive at the office with your furniture. As soon as you sign your furniture order, you are assigned a designated Operations Specialist. The Operations Specialist works with your representative to coordinate the delivery or shipping and installation at your convenience. Before any furniture is moved onto our delivery trucks, we have inspected your furniture to ensure that every movable part works smoothly and reliably; that all file drawers are correctly aligned and have file bars; that all drawers are clean and functional; that all locks and keys work and are in place; and that the entire order is clean, complete and ready for use.

Our office furniture installation experts arrive and work on a fixed schedule, either during or before/after work hours, at your discretion. They are efficient, courteous, keep a clean work environment, and check the completed delivery with your representative. Our staff is professionally dressed in uniforms for ease of identification, and fully insured for your protection.

Although rarely needed, any punch list items are handled promptly, with your satisfaction our primary goal. We look forward to helping you with the installation of your office
